Annie’s Playground to be Temporarily Closed for Repairs

(Bel Air, MD) - - The Harford County Department of Parks and Recreation has announced that Annie’s Playground in Fallston will be closed for repairs during the week of July 9 – July 13, 2012.

The firm of Leathers and Associates is scheduled to complete repairs on some of the playground equipment, thus necessitating the temporary closure of the playground. The anticipated work will take approximately five (5) days to complete.

For further information regarding Annie’s Playground and the repair project, contact Paul Magness, Chief of Capital Planning and Development with the Department of Parks and Recreation at 410-638-4753, Monday through Friday during normal business hours.
